

Time flies when you're changing lives!

With so many exciting things happening we can't believe it's December already! Keep scrolling for updates on Ottawa ARPA Funding, fundraising opportunities, and what to watch tonight.

Dear First name / friend, as we enter the end of 2022 we want to thank you for sharing in the work MOKA does. The generosity and tenacity of the community around us continues to astound and humble us. MOKA could not continue our life changing work of serving people with intellectual and developmental disabilities without your support.

We have seen some incredible accomplishments by the people we serve over the last year and hope that you have seen some great triumphs of your own. Wins, whether they are ours, yours, or the neighbors down the street, create a stronger, happier, and healthier community for us all. We hope you find time to celebrate those wins and enjoy time with those you love as this year comes to a close.

Happy Holidays and a joyous New Year from all of us at MOKA! We are honored to be a trusted provider of care and look forward to continuing to live out our mission each and every day of 2023.

WINNER!

MOKA is thrilled to have won Digital Lift's Giving Tuesday challenge! The goal of this contest was to see who could mobilize their community with the most interaction on Facebook. Thank you to our MOKA family for your help in securing this $5,000 prize!

TV THAT MATTERS

Did you know the first person to be diagnosed with autism is still alive and sharing his journey? Watch the trailer below and tune into the premiere of "In a Different Key" on Dec. 13 at 9/8c on PBS.
